Reasons for Allowance

The following is the examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest the combination of elements as recited in the following independent claims.

building a first sequence of stable elements from the first document, wherein the first sequence of stable elements represents an ordered list of elements where each element is from the predetermined set of stable elements, wherein the stable elements are derived from the set of elements that include the stable elements and the unstable elements

The dependent claims being definite, further limiting and fully enabled by the specification are also allowed.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
